

FAC 530.2 Support for self-initiated professional development

McPherson College benefits from a significant endowment—the Kightlinger Fund—designated for the support of academic professional development. Each half-time and full-time faculty member is allotted a minimum annual allowance from the fund's endowment earnings. The allowance may vary from year to year, depending upon the endowment draw approved by the Board of Trustees and the number of faculty eligible for support.