

FAC 607. Class Rosters, Records, and Attendance

Faculty are required to submit all course grades in accordance with the academic calendar. Faculty members should keep class attendance records in order to comply with federal mandates that the college document the last date of attendance if a student withdraws. Faculty members are required to report attendance data through the college's on-line reporting system.