

FAC 658. Students on Academic Probation

Students may be placed on probation at McPherson College for academic reasons. Student academic probation is governed by the Satisfactory Academic Progress: Scholarship, Probation and Suspension Rules in the McPherson College Catalog. The Office of the Provost and Dean of the Faculty will provide faculty advisers with information concerning the academic status of students. Faculty advisers are expected to work with all such students in order to help them overcome their difficulties.