

FAC 665. Advising Students for Teacher Education

Faculty should advise students desiring to become teachers to contact the Department of Curriculum and Instruction as early in their college careers as possible. However, faculty advisors should be very familiar with requirements and procedures described in the Advisor/Advisee Handbook for Teacher Preparation Programs.