

5.16 Compensation

Unemployment

If employment with the College ceases employees under certain circumstances may be entitled to unemployment compensation. Former employees may apply to the appropriate office of the Kansas Department of Human Resources for any such compensation to which they are legally entitled.