

6.06 Phone System

The College Admissions department maintains faculty and staff phone directories. The Admissions department publishes a campus directory several times per academic year.

College employees must notify the human resource department and switchboard personnel of changes in office location and/or phone number.